The Power of 30 | The Power of HER

A Tribute To

My Mother Lorean E. Jor

I am grateful to my mother, Lorean E. Jones, for her strength, fight, courage, tenaciousness and her drive. She understood the value of education. She didn't believe in giving up no matter the obstacles/challenges she encountered. Because of my mother, I am prepared to take on the world. I am who I am and I am grateful to her for that. Thanks, Mrs. Jones.
